IMPORTANT NOTICE TO SURETY POSTING BAIL

YOUR OBLIGATION ON POSTING BAIL

You have pledged bail for the release of another person. This makes you responsible for seeing that the Defendant appears in Court at the time and place specified on the Bond.

RETURN OF BAIL BY SURRENDERING DEFENDANT

If you believe that the Defendant may not appear or if he is planning to leave the State of Maryland, you may surrender him to a commissioner prior to trial and be relieved of the obligation.

YOUR LOSS IF DEFENDANT DOES NOT APPEAR FOR TRIAL

Failure of the Defendant to appear will result in the forfeiture of the bail. You may get back all or part of the bail if you surrender the Defendant within 90 days after the date of forfeiture. (Note: A judge may, for good cause, extend this to 180 days.)

EXTENSION

If you have posted a percentage of the full bail, you will have 90 days (possibly extended to 180 on application) to surrender the Defendant or pay the balance remaining of the full bail. Failure to pay the forfeiture will result in the entry of a Court Judgment against you and could result in the seizure and sale by the Court of your house, car or other personal property.

RETURN OF BOND AFTER DEFENDANT APPEARS FOR TRIAL

If you have posted cash bail and the Defendant has been found not guilty, or the charges were dismissed, not pressed or set aside, or if imposition of sentence was suspended, the amount refunded to you will be returned by check.

If an appeal is filed, the bail will continue in effect until trial in the higher court. However, the bail may be immediately released if the Defendant personally appears to sign a release of the bail and a statement that he understands that a new bail must be posted if he does file an appeal. This release can be signed only by the Defendant in the presence of a Court official. The refund will then be made to you.

CASE NO. 86CR0628

STATE'S ANSWER TO DEFENDANT'S MOTION
FOR NEW TRIAL

Now comes the State of Maryland, by Sandra A. O'Connor, State's Attorney for Baltimore County, and James O'Connor Gentry, Jr., Assistant State's Attorney for Baltimore County, and in Answer to Defendant's Motion for New Trial says:

1. That the State admits the allegations in paragraphs 1 and 2;
2. That the State denies the allegations in paragraphs 3, 4, and 5;
3. That the test of sufficiency to be applied in considering a motion for a new trial is exactly that applied in considering a motion for judgment of acquittal: Was there any relevant evidence, properly before the jury, legally sufficient to sustain a conviction? State v. Devers and Webster, 260 Md. 360, 379, 272 A.2d 794, cert. denied, 404 U.S. 824, 92 S.Ct. 50, 30 L.Ed. 2d 52 (1971);
4. That the Defendant's Motion for Judgment of Acquittal was denied at the time of trial.

WHEREFORE, the State of Maryland prays this Honorable Court to:

- A. Deny the Defendant's Motion for New Trial; and
- B. For such other and further relief as the nature of the case may require.

The Honorable Judge Hinkel
County Courts Building

Towson, MD 21204

Your Honor:

I am writing to you regarding my fiancé', Harry Joines. Sir, I am appealing to you for a reduction of sentence. On May 26, 1987, Harry was sentenced to five years and one year (at least they do run concurrently) for two separate charges. Since April 22, 1987 (trial date) I have been experiencing such difficult and devastating emotional and financial hardships. Sir, my children and I are at your mercy and are experiencing these hardships unnecessarily. It is extremely difficult for me to take care of myself, son-6, daughter-4 months, and another one on the way.

Please imagine how hard it would be for you to sit in a courtroom and watch your loved one being sent away for a crime they did not commit. This was most definitely a case of being in the wrong place at the wrong time. You see Sir, I have known and lived with Harry for six years and he is definitely a family man.

To sum it all up - his family needs him tremendously. Thanks for taking the time to read my plea.

Very sincerely yours,

Joann S. Abraham
